Searching for the Clever Hat

We've received a request from a member whose mother has made many hats from The Clever Hat pattern that we understand was on the Guild website quite a number of years ago.

Her copy is now very worn and practically illegible, and unfortunately we don't appear to have a copy in our archives.

Does any member still have a copy they'd be willing to send to this knitter? If so, please contact Luke at Secretary@knittersguildnsw.org.au.

Conference 2019

Please don't forget that the Guild's Conference is taking place in Newcastle from 12-14th July. Booking is easy via our website, where you will find all the details: www.knittersguildnsw.org.au.

We're welcoming Bristol Ivy from the USA at our Conference and she's also kindly agreed to conduct workshops around the State for us – these are taking place in Sydney CBD, Queanbeyan, Newcastle and Penrith.

Details of the workshops are also on our website, where you can make your booking.

Non-Guild members are very welcome at both the Conference and the Workshops so if you have friends who are not (yet!) Guild members, do let them know about these events.
